Senate

Chamber Action

Resolutions Submitted: Nine resolutions were submitted as follows: S. Con. Res. 1; and S. Res. 1–8.

Pages 6, 7, 14, 15, 19

Special Reports: During adjournment of 86th Congress, the following two special reports were filed:

Report of Select Committee on Small Business entitled "Case Study in Subcontracting"—filed September 16, 1960 (S. Rept. 1947); and

Report of Select Committee on Small Business entitled "Government Competition With Business—Refrigerated Warehousing"—filed December 30, 1960 (S. Rept. 1948).

Swearing in of Newly Elected Senators: The following 33 Senators, elected in November 1960 for the term expiring in 1967, were sworn in: Senators Allott, Anderson, Bartlett, Boggs, Bridges, Case (New Jersey), Cooper, Curtis, Douglas, Dworshak, Eastland, Ellender, Humphrey, Johnson (Texas), Jordan, Kefauver, Kerr, Long (Missouri), McClellan, McNamara, Metcalf, Miller, Mundt, Neuberger, Pell, Randolph, Robertson, Russell, Saltonstall, Schoeppel, Smith (Maine), Sparkman, and Thurmond.

In addition, Senators Smith (Massachusetts) and Blakley were sworn in to fill vacancies created by the resignations, respectively, of Senators Kennedy and Johnson (Texas), and Senator Hickey was sworn in to fill vacancy created by the death of Senator-elect Thomson.

President-Elect Kennedy: The resignation from the Senate of Senator Kennedy, following his election to be President of the United States, was laid down.

Vice-President-Elect Johnson: The resignation from the Senate of Senator Johnson (Texas) (effective upon taking his oath today as Senator), following his election to be Vice President of the United States, was laid down.

Procedural Resolutions Adopted: The following three procedural resolutions were adopted:

Notification of quorum: S. Res. 1, providing for the appointment of two Senators to advise the President that a quorum of the Senate is present and ready to receive any message;

Legislative program: S. Res. 2, advising the House that a quorum of the Senate is present and ready to transact business; and

Hour of meeting: S. Res. 3, setting the hour of 12 o'clock meridian as the hour of daily meeting of the Senate unless otherwise ordered.

Senate Rules: The following three resolutions, providing for amendments to the Senate rules, were submitted, but their consideration was prevented by objections, and the resolutions were then ordered to lie over for 1 day under the rule:

S. Res. 4, to amend rule XXII of the Standing Rules of Senate by permitting cloture on vote of three-fifths (rather than two-thirds) of Senators present and voting (submitted by Senator Anderson);

S. Res. 5, to amend rule XXII of the Standing Rules of Senate by providing that cloture motion signed by the required number of Senators shall be at once stated by presiding officer, 1 hour after Senate meets on 15th calendar day thereafter (as alternative to 1 hour after Senate meets on the following day but one) (submitted by Senator Humphrey); and

S. Res. 6, to amend rule XIX of the Standing Rules of Senate, so that during consideration of matter that has been pending for 7 days or more it shall be in order to offer motion that Senate proceed with consideration of amendments, which motion shall be privileged and decided with not more than 1 hour of debate; if determined in affirmative, then further debate on any amendment thereafter received, and all debate under pending business, shall be germane to subject matter, and all questions as to germaneness shall be determined without debate (submitted by Senator Case of South Dakota).

Pages 7–18

Condolence Resolutions: Senate adopted S. Res. 7, expressing condolences on the death of Senator Hennings, of Missouri, and S. Res. 8, expressing condolences on the death of Senator-elect Thomson, of Wyoming. Page 19

Election of Speaker: By a vote of 258 to 172, Sam Rayburn, of Texas, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives over Charles A. Halleck, of Indiana. The Speaker was escorted to the Chair by Representatives Halleck and McCormack.

Representative Vinson administered the oath of office to the Speaker, who subsequently administered the oath to 430 Members-elect en bloc. Representatives-elect Chambers, of the Fifth Congressional District of Indiana; Wickersham, of the Sixth Congressional District of Oklahoma; and Moulder, of the Eleventh Congressional District of Missouri, were requested to stand aside during the en bloc oath administration when objection was raised to their being sworn in.

The House by a record vote of 252 yeas to 166 nays ordered the previous question on H. Res. 1, denying a seat in the House of Representatives to either J. Edward Roush or George O. Chambers from the Fifth Congressional District of Indiana, pending investigation and report by the Committee on House Administration; after which the resolution was adopted by a division vote of 205 yeas to 95 nays.

Subsequently the House adopted H. Res. 2 and 3, which authorized the administration of the oath of office to Representatives-elect Moulder and Wickersham, respectively. Pages 21–22

Party Leaders: It was announced that Representatives McCormack and Halleck were selected as majority and minority leaders, respectively. Page 24

Chamber Action

Resolutions Submitted: Six resolutions were submitted, as follows: S. Res. 9–14. Pages 65–66

Electoral Count: Vice President appointed Senators Hayden and Curtis as tellers on the part of the Senate to count the electoral votes of the several States for the election of President and Vice President. These appointments were made pursuant to Senate action taken yesterday in adoption of S. Con. Res. 1, providing for a joint meeting of the House and Senate in the Hall of the House on Friday, January 6, 1961, at 1 p.m., for the purpose of opening and counting the votes of the electors of the several States for President and Vice President. Page 46

Senate Rules: S. Res. 4, to amend rule XXII of the Standing Rules of Senate by permitting cloture on vote of three-fifths (rather than two-thirds) of Senators present and voting, which yesterday had gone over for 1 day under the rule, was laid down, modified, and debated. Senator Humphrey offered a modified amendment (in nature of a substitute) to permit cloture by majority vote of Senators chosen and sworn (constitutional majority).

The hour of 2 p.m. having arrived at expiration of morning hour, S. Res. 4 went to the calendar, following which Senator Humphrey moved that Senate resume consideration of the resolution. During debate of this motion, Senator Clark submitted six resolutions, as follows, which went over for 1 day under the rule: S. Res. 9, to amend rule XXIV relative to conference committees; S. Res. 10, to amend section 134(c) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 relative to committee meetings during sessions; S. Res. 11, to amend rule XXV respecting size of membership of Committees on Finance and on the Judiciary; S. Res. 12, to amend rule III relative to reading of Senate Journal; S. Res. 13, to amend rule XIX relative to germaneness of debate; and S. Res. 14, to amend section 134 of Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 relative to procedure in Senate committee meetings. Pages 46–47, 48–61, 65–66

Program for Thursday: Senate met at noon and recessed at 4:01 p.m. until noon Thursday, January 5, when, following routine morning business, the pending question will be Humphrey motion to resume consideration of S. Res. 4, to amend Senate rules respecting cloture. Page 66

INVESTIGATION—LABOR RACKETEERING

Committee on Government Operations: The Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations began hearings with regard to alleged racket control over local No. 239 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, New York City. Witnesses heard were Paul Tierney, assistant counsel for the subcommittee; Wesley Pase, secretary-treasurer, Pase Motor Co., Elmhurst, Long Island, N.Y.; Mat Tane and Bernard Stein, both members of local No. 239; Paul Wilner, a GAO investigator, New York; and Edward Straub and Natalie Laurendi, both of whom are detectives with the New York City Police Department.

Hearings continue tomorrow.

INTERNAL SECURITY—CUBA

Committee on the Judiciary: The Internal Security Subcommittee held hearings concerning the payment of a Castro subsidy to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Testimony was received from Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch, a Cuban physician at a New York hospital, and a former official of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, who stated that that committee received $3,500 from Cuban delegate to the U.N. Raulito Roa for a full-page pro-Castro advertisement in the New York Times last April. He also stated that this organization had never registered as a foreign agent, which contradicted the testimony of Robert Taber, a former CBS newsman, and presently an official of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, who stated that no foreign money was used to pay for the aforementioned advertisement.

Hearings were recessed subject to call of the Chair.

Congressional Record The public proceedings of each House of Congress, as reported by the Official Reporters thereof, are printed pursuant to directions of the Joint Committee on Printing as authorized by appropriate provisions of Title 44, United States Code, and published for each day that one or both Houses are in session, excepting very infrequent instances when two or more unusually small consecutive issues are printed at one time. ¶ The Congressional Record will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, for $1.50 per month, payable in advance. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, directly to the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. For subscription purposes, 20 daily issues constitute a month. The charge for individual copies varies in proportion to the size of the issue. ¶ Following each session of Congress, the daily Congressional Record is revised, printed, permanently bound and is sold by the Superintendent of Documents in individual parts or by sets. ¶ With the exception of copyrighted articles, there are no restrictions on the republication of material from the Congressional Record.
